

Looking for ways to have fun AND make a difference as we head into the holiday season? At PGK, we consider it our job to connect you to these kinds of ideas and the amazing organizations that offer such opportunities. Don't miss your chance to make these next few weeks even more meaningful. When you're done, record your good deeds via our new iOS mobile app, YouthGive, score points and share what you've accomplished too!

Five Ways to Give Back This Holiday Season Around Boston

Bring holiday smiles by Creating Homemade Cards for Seniors to go out with the Ethos' Meals on Wheels Program or consider Serving a Meal for Seniors at Bay Cove Senior Services

Conduct a holiday food drive in your neighborhood and then sign up to help Sort and Select holiday provisions for clients at the all-volunteer Harvest Food Pantry in Cambridge

Help babies and toddlers born into poverty get a good start by making sure they have access to toys and books this holiday season; something so simple can play a critical role in their early development – join the Room to Grow Annual Holiday Toy Drive

As the temperatures drop, consider what it must be like for those who don't have basic essentials as it gets colder, and consider setting up your own Operation Sock Drop to benefit Boston's homeless served by Friends of Boston's Homeless

When families find themselves bound for Boston for the sake of urgent medical care, a couple of fun crafty projects that are also appropriate as winter approaches can be just the thing to bring a smile – consider Making Fleece Hats or Hot Chocolate in a Jar to bring a little warmth, and deliver to our friends at Hospitality Homes
